

If you want a 19 or 20, read _____ for _____ and guess the other _____.

If you want a 21-24, read _____ for _____ and guess the other _____.

Types of Questions:

Main idea	Inference	Find the detail
Context	Word Meaning	EXCEPT

POOD: _____ Order of _____.

Science Reasoning

Three types of questions:

Charts and Graphs- identifiable because _____. Do these first.

Experiments and Studies- identifiable because _____. Do these second.

Multiple Perspectives- identifiable because the have labeled perspectives. Leave until the end.

Almost all of the information is _____.

There isn't enough time to _____. Instead, _____ and pay attention to the _____ of the graphs.

Remember, this is a Science _____ test. Think of it as a

Reading test with charts and graphs. Do not get hung up on _____ and _____ you are unfamiliar with.

Name: _____

General Session

My ACT Scores: English _____ Math _____ Reading _____

Science _____ Composite _____

My ACT goal: _____

What does benchmark even mean? _____

Subject	Benchmark	Percentage Equivalent
English	_____	_____
Math	_____	_____
Reading	_____	_____
Science Reasoning	_____	_____

Strategies:

Pieces (not the whole): _____

Blind Guessing: _____

ACT Test Order	Number of Qs	Length of Time
1. _____	_____	_____
2. _____	_____	_____
3. _____	_____	_____
4. _____	_____	_____
5. _____	_____	_____