Dear Families;

Subject: Chester Community Charter School – School Vehicles Rules (COVID-19)

In order to maintain the highest level of safety from COVID-19 while riding to school or home on a school vehicle, these guidelines must be followed and any violation could result in removal of transportation services. Please help your child/ren understand that these are changed times, we need to be sure all students and staff are safe.

At Bus Stops

1. Students are to maintain social distancing while at the bus stop
2. No fighting or horse playing while at bus stop
3. No being loud or causing a disturbance at the bus stop
4. No cursing at the bus stop
5. Students must always wear facemask when boarding the school vehicle

During transport to school and back to bus stop

1. Students must have facemask on to board the school vehicle (driver will have spares if needed)
2. Students will board the bus in an orderly fashion and maintaining 6 feet of distance between the student in front and behind them, NO pushing or shoving.
3. Student will board the school vehicles and report to their assigned seat.
4. All student must stay in their assigned seat during transport.
5. No student is allowed to hang over seat, walk around, or move seats.
6. Students are to maintain social distancing at all times during transport.
7. All student are required to wear facemask at all times unless there is a medical concern in which case the student will be allowed to wear face shield.

8. No student is allowed to remove another student facemask mask during transport.
9. No fighting or horse playing allowed during transport.
- 10.No eating or drinking is allowed on the school vehicle.
- 11.No loud tones or music, student wishing to engage in music or games must wear head phones.

For a complete list of all bus rules that should be upheld during the transport from bus stop to school and back to bus stop, please click this link \(CCCS School Bus Riding Rules\).

Together we can make this a safe experience for all students and staff.

Thank You and Stay Safe,

Michael E Sawyer
