

Policies of the Board of Education

Series 100: Board of Education

BOARD REVIEW OF ADMINISTRATIVE RULES/HANDBOOKS

151.4

The Board of Education reserves the right to review, approve, and veto administrative rules and handbooks. Statutory law, case law, or policies adopted by the Board will be used as a guideline.

Any handbooks developed by the administration are subject to Board review when changes are proposed. These include handbooks such as administrative structure and benefits, classified salaries and benefits, committee handbooks, etc.

Handbooks which are revised annually such as student and staff handbooks shall be reviewed and approved by the Board at its August regular meeting.

Adopted: 10/11/82

Revised: 4/22/91
March 1994

Waunakee Community School District