

The Eastwood Hall of Fame 2020

LINDA DUNMYER

Linda Dunmyer was born in Pemberville in 1947 to Irvin and Clara (Eilert) Hetrick.

Linda graduated from Eastwood High School in 1965. She received her Bachelor of Science in Education in 1968 from Bowling Green State University and her Master of Education from Ashland University in 1990.

Linda married Ron in 1966 and they have 3 children; Shelly, Ron Jr. and Stephany.

Linda has achieved her goals by believing that our purpose in life is to help others.

- Taught 30 years at Eastwood in first through seventh grades, four elementary buildings and at the middle school
- Selected as a Martha Holden Jennings Scholar in 1976
- Joined the Ohio Department of Education's Project Discovery to instruct teachers about the Ohio Math Model and Cooperative Learning
- Named Northwest Ohio Teacher of the Year by the Ohio Council of Teachers of Mathematics in 1993
- Worked to establish the Quilting Eagles and to give quilts and books to preschool children and Quilts of Valor to veterans in our community annually
- Supports Braedan's Bridge and research for Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy