Empowering

"Working with Sarah Lindsay was a dream! She thinks of the little details, taking care of all the stressful things for her clients. My daughter, who has never been a fan of having her photo taken, was so relaxed and truly lit from within. Sarah has that rare ability to bring out a confident, natural beauty that shines through her stunning photographs."

"Sarah has quite the amazing package that includes a Design Consultation in addition to Professional Hair & Makeup! My daughter loved the VIP Experience and Sarah's ever so encouraging and positive feedback! All of this made her feel so special. Well worth this experience!"

"There isn't a better photographer around. You are left with nothing but a positive experience and smiles. The way Sarah makes her girls feel like the most beautiful girl in the world and the way she captured our daughters spirit was overwhelming. The whole experience from start to finish is professional, fun and encouraging. Her staff is responsive and proactive in every aspect. I can't wait for our family shoot this fall!"

MEET Sarah

Sarah struggled with a lack of confidence and body image issues in high school. Because of this, she has dedicated herself to lifting girls up and showing them how beautiful they really are. Inside and out. She wants every girl know they are loved, they are incredible, and they have worth and beauty.

"You are unique and different, and that is what makes you beautiful. That is what makes you, you."

Sarah is a nationally recognized portrait photographer and her work has been featured on the cover and inside spreads of Shutter Scene Magazine, SeniorMuse Magazine, and SeniorSZN Magazine.
