Hey Gene,

Hope you are having a good day. Tina Gwozdz and I spoke this morning about Will's latest escapade at St. Helena Elementary School. As you probably know, at its meeting last Tuesday, the Board voted to publicly disapprove of Will's actions.

Will, through his attorney, refused to recuse himself from the ES during which I discussed my investigation, conclusions and recommendations. A majority of the Board, including Tina, were incensed that Will would not recuse himself, as it made it awkward for them to ask questions of me.

In any event, Tina and I discussed what possible action she could take regarding Will's failure to recuse. I came up with the idea of her reporting him to the Ethics Commission, as I believe there is a strong argument that he violated several of the rules of conduct, namely using his official position to obtain personal financial gain (ie, his lawsuit seeking money damages.)

Before I assist Tina with filing this complaint, do you think it could negatively impact the suit you are defending? Feel free to call if you want to further discuss.

Thanks.
