

NEW Behavioral Health Crisis Line in Benton and Franklin Counties

(509) 792-1747

Comprehensive Healthcare provides behavioral health crisis services in seven counties in Washington, including Benton and Franklin Counties. If you or a loved one are experiencing a crisis, call (509) 792-1747.

Signs of a behavioral health crisis:

- Experiencing thoughts of suicide
- Wanting to harm self; stating or writing they would be better off dead
- Feeling severely depressed or worthless
- Unsafe or strange behavior; not caring for self
- Showing impulsive or reckless behavior (including those caused by substance use)
- Dramatic shifts in mood, sleep, or eating habits
- Withdrawing from activities and social interactions
- Severe change in school or work performance

50

Comprehensive
HEALTHCARE

50 years together. Decades more to come.

For more information: (509) 412-1051 | comphc.org