

High School Library Media Program

The high school library media specialist provides direct instruction to students and collaborates with teachers to provide authentic learning experiences that develop proficiency in information literacy, communication, research, and technology skills. With flexible scheduling, high school media specialists collaborate with all subject area teachers to implement needed library media skills to guide and empower students to become independent learners.