“I am very excited and proud to announce that all schools met growth last year and 10 exceeded growth! Our students and staff have worked extremely hard,” said Superintendent Jeff Wallace. “To our leadership team and Davie County Board of Education, we stayed the course and found a way to put children in school buildings for in-person learning as much as possible, and the benefits of that decision are showing. I am extremely proud of this accomplishment, as we have all worked harder than ever, adjusting to a new way of learning and working.”
