Yellow Ribbon Fund - Help Us Honor our Military Heroes

Honor our Wounded Heroes by supporting OLGC Yellow Ribbon Fund Days and help improve the lives of wounded veterans. Founded in 2005, Yellow Ribbon Fund ("YRF") is a 501(c)3 veteran service organization dedicated to assisting severely wounded, ill, and injured service members. The mission of YRF is to enable families facing medical crises to stay together during the critical recuperation phase. Every year, 1700 military families nationwide and representing every branch of the United States Military receive assistance from YRF...400 of those families are our neighbors living right here in the DMV!

YRF relies on donations to provide practical support such as rental cars, hotel stays, and fully-furnished apartments at no cost to military families while their service member is receiving medical treatment at Walter Reed National Military Medical Center or Fort Belvoir Community Hospital. And the needs of wounded service members and their caregivers are steadily increasing.

How can we, OLGC parishioners, help? DONATE, DONATE, DONATE...No gift is too small...or too big!

- VISA, MasterCard, Target, or Wal-Mart gift cards
- Make checks payable to Yellow Ribbon Fund (memo line: OLGC / DMV)
- Donate online at <https://yellowribbonfund.org/donate/>

OUR DONATIONS WILL BE EARMARKED EXCLUSIVELY TO PROVIDE FOR MILITARY FAMILIES IN THE DMV!

Donations will be collected this weekend outside before and after all weekend Masses: Look for canopy tents by the Bell Tower and the grassy area between the Chapel and the Admin Building.

Any questions, please contact Cheryl Jones at cheryl.mcmillan.jones@gmail.com or 571.230.0458.

The Diocese requires all clergy, employees, and volunteers with substantial contact with minors to acknowledge that they have received a copy and to send back the signed acknowledgement page. NEW LAUNCH – A new Regional Virtual Senior Center launched earlier this month. When senior centers throughout the region closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic, staff became concerned about the danger isolation posed to the mental and physical health of older adults. To help minimize those feelings, senior centers pivoted from in-person to virtual programming so that participants could stay connected while remaining physically distant.

Although centers are now open and in-person programs have resumed, the need for virtual programming continues, both for those who cannot leave their homes as well as those who are no longer comfortable visiting centers in person. To address this ongoing need, five jurisdictions in Northern Virginia are partnering to offer a regional virtual senior center for older adults and adults with disabilities. The Northern Virginia Virtual Center for active Adults launched on May 2 to coincide with Older Americans Month. The five jurisdictions – ARLINGTON County, Fairfax City, Fairfax County, Prince William County, and the Town of Vienna – will work together to offer live virtual programming on Zoom five days a week. The events will range from fitness classes to special presentations on interactive games.

There is no fee to participate in these programs. All older adults and adults with disabilities living in Northern Virginia are welcome! Visit the NOVA VCAA by going to Fairfaxcounty.gov and searching for “Northern Virginia Virtual Center for Active Adults”.

AFTER FILING TAXES, WHAT RECORDS CAN YOU KEEP? – If you filed your 2021 tax return, you may want to do some spring cleaning, starting with tax-related paper clutter. Paring down is good. Just be careful to hold on to essential records that may be needed in the event of an IRS audit. Some documents may be needed to help you collect a future refund to assist with filing your return next year. Before you start tossing or shredding documents, read the rules to learn about what to keep (and for how long) and what can be safely discarded.

The general rules: At a minimum, you should keep tax records for as long as the IRS can audit your tax return or assess additional taxes. That’s usually three years after you file your return. This means you potentially can get rid of most records related to tax returns for 2018 and earlier years. However, the statute of limitations extends to six years for taxpayers who understate their adjusted gross income by more than 25%; what constitutes an understatement may go beyond simply not reporting items of income. So, to be safe, a general rule of thumb is to save tax records for six years from filing.

Keep some records longer:

- 1 - You need to hang on to some tax-related records beyond the statute of limitations. For example: Keep the tax returns themselves indefinitely, so you can prove to the IRS that you did file a legitimate return. If you don’t file a return or if you filed a fraudulent return, there’s no statute of limitations.)
- 2 - Retain W-2 forms until you begin receiving Social Security Benefits. That may seem long, but if questions arise regarding your work record or earnings for a particular year, you’ll need your W-2 forms to help provide the documentation needed.
- 3 - Keep records related to real estate or investments for as long as you own the assets, plus at least three years after you sell them, and report the sales on your tax return for six years (if you want extra protection.)
- 4 - Hang on to receipts associated with retirement accounts until you’ve depleted the accounts and reported the last withdrawal on your tax return, plus three (or six) years.

Other reasons to retain records: Keep in mind that these are the federal tax record retention guidelines. Your state and local tax records may differ. In addition, lenders, co-op boards, and other private parties may require you to produce copies of your tax returns as a condition of lending money, approving a purchase, or otherwise doing business with you. (Thanks to O’Connor, Desmarais, and Bolyard, PLLC.)

BE PREPARED – For us, the hurricane season begins on June 1 and doesn’t end until November 30. That’s a long time! If you haven’t done it, sign up for Fairfax Alerts and have a battery-powered radio available. Make sure you have proper insurance and inventory your personal property ahead of time. During a hurricane, listen to radio and TV for official, up-to-date information and stay in a safe interior room in your home. Once the storm is over, don’t walk or drive through floodwaters. It just takes a little common sense to keep safe during the fickle hurricane season here in the Eastern Seaboard area.

Mary's Travelers has been relaunched! This is a wonderful program for families who have a devotion to Our Lady!

In honor of the rebeautification of Our Lady of the Highways Shrine in Childs MD, Mary's Travelers program has been updated and redesigned and is available to anyone, anywhere! What is Mary's Travelers? A spiritual community dedicated to Mary and her special intercession! Mary's Travelers invoke the protection of Christ's Mother on all our journeys. Members promote devotion to the Mother of God as a way to encourage careful and prayerful journeys. As a community, they strive to make the ordinary, routine activity of travel - physical or spiritual - an act of love for God. As a digital community of supporters, both provinces are encouraged to participate and promote this program. Here are some special benefits of the program.
