

AHS Men's Basketball Heads to State Championship

This Friday afternoon (March 23), the Alameda High School Men's Basketball Team will compete for the CIF Division II State Championship up in Sacramento. The Hornets will be playing the private Crossroads Roadrunners from Santa Monica.

The game will be held in the Golden 1 Center Arena at 4 PM. Tickets are available here. (A 10 AM ticket provides general admission for the whole day.)

If you can't go to Sacramento, Alameda Theatre is livestreaming the game! Doors open at 3:30 for the 4:00 PM game. Tickets are available now at the box office and online.

To watch the game from home, go to NBC Sports California (broadcast channels) or online.

Word has it that the team is encouraging community members to wear black and gold on Friday in support of the team, too.

"I am so proud of the Hornets players and coaches for making it this far in the post season," says Superintendent Sean McPhetridge. "And I am grateful for the outpouring of support we are seeing from the community. This is a wonderful event for the people of Alameda."
