

63rd Island Bowl Coming Up!

The Alameda High School Hornets and the Encinal High School Jets will compete in the 63rd annual Island Bowl next Friday, October 27, at AHS's Thompson Field.

The JV game begins at 4 pm, and varsity begins at 7 pm. Tickets are $6 for adults. Tickets are $4 for students with ID cards and $3 for students with an ASB sticker. They can be purchased at the gate on Clement Street.

Currently the Hornet's overall record is 4-4, and the Jets are undefeated. Both teams are at the top of the West Alameda County Conference Shoreline League's rankings — with Encinal at 2-0 and Alameda at 1-0.

The annual bowl began in 1955. The official name of the trophy that the winning school gets to showcase each year is the "Alameda Chamber of Commerce Perpetual Trophy."

Alameda leads the series 32-28-2; Encinal has won 23 of the last 35 games.

You can find a recap of every game between 1955 and 2015 here.

"We celebrate this hometown tradition and appreciate the friendly rivalry between the schools," says AUSD Superintendent Sean McPhetridge. "And look forward as always to good sportsmanship and fun times at Alameda's 'Big Game' next Friday!"