Thanksgiving Break

FROM THE DESK OF . . . Matt Dillon, Principal

Kyle Families:

Communication with your child's teacher is extremely important as we work together to prepare your child for success. A family conference night is one way to connect with your child's teacher. Our next two conference dates are scheduled for Thursday, 11/16, and Tuesday, 11/21, from 3:45 to 7:45 p.m. Please contact your child's teacher to schedule a conference.

Student report cards are scheduled to be sent home with students on Monday, 11/6. Please take a moment to sit with your child and review their academic progress. Teachers will be selecting one student per homeroom who demonstrate "Awesome Progress" with their academics each quarter. The selected students will be recognized for their hard work, demonstrated perseverance and Growth Mindset approach to academics at a school-wide assembly. Research supports the importance of recognizing children for not giving up when they face academic challenges.

There is no school for students beginning Wednesday, 11/22, due to Thanksgiving break. School resumes session on Monday, 11/27.

The weather is much cooler! Please have your child dress appropriately for the weather. According to the student code of conduct, students will go outside unless the temperature falls below 20 degrees. Dressing in layers is important. There is no safety patrol or student breakfast if Troy City Schools is on a 2-hour delay. Besides colder weather, November brings a time for us to reflect and be grateful. We're grateful to have your children be a part of our Kyle family and want to ensure that our community needs are met. Do not hesitate to contact the main office if your family is in need of winter clothing.

Stay connected with us by visiting the Kyle Elementary and Kyle Elementary PTO Facebook pages for more information.

Have a grateful November,
Mr. Dillon
