

Alameda Unified School District
Session Five: September 28, 2017

- Members reviewed the Service Delivery Model options which they started looking at in the previous session (session 4).

- Members challenged and defended their own directive.

- Members started working on the draft Special Education Mission and Belief statements.

- There was discussion as members questioned, defended, and grappled with the process and the charge of the planning team.