

Group Edits to Draft Mission Statements October 26, 2017

Kate's Group (Idea 1):

The mission of Alameda Unified School District Special Education in partnership with families and the community is to support, inspire and prepare our diverse ~~preschool through adult~~ learners in an environment that is safe, least restrictive, culturally responsive, academically ~~rigorous~~ inquisitive, and inclusive; taught by highly qualified professionals, so that each student reaches ~~his/her~~ their greatest potential and ~~excels as a contributing member of society~~ participate in our community.

Lindsey's Group (Idea 1):

The mission of Alameda Unified School District Special Education in partnership with families and the community is to support, inspire and prepare our diverse preschool through adult learners in a least restrictive environment that is safe, ~~least restrictive~~, culturally responsive, academically rigorous, evidence-based, and inclusive; taught by ~~highly qualified~~ trained professionals, so that each student reaches his/her greatest potential and excels as a contributing member of society.

Joanne's Group (Idea 1):

The mission of Alameda Unified School District Special Education ~~in partnership with families and the community~~ is to support, ~~inspire~~ and prepare our diverse preschool through adult learners in an environment that is safe, least restrictive, culturally responsive, academically rigorous, and inclusive; taught by highly qualified professionals, so that each student ~~reaches his/her greatest potential and excels as a contributing member of society~~.

Jesse' Group (Idea 2):

The mission of Alameda Unified School District Special Education in ~~collaboration~~ partnership with families and the community is to ensure that our diverse preschool through adult learners reach their greatest potential in a learning environment that is engaging, ~~challenging~~, rigorous, culturally responsive, least restrictive, research-based, ~~and safe~~, and inclusive taught and supported by highly ~~trained~~ qualified professionals so that each student can excel as engaged participants in our local and global communities.

Julie's Group (Idea 1):

The mission of Alameda Unified School District Special Education in partnership with families and the community is to support, inspire and prepare all students ~~our diverse preschool through adult learners~~ in an environment that is safe, ~~least restrictive~~, inclusive, culturally responsive, and academically rigorous, ~~and inclusive~~; taught by highly qualified professionals, so that each student ~~reaches his/her greatest potential~~ can participate meaningfully and excels as a contributing member of society.

Sarah's Group (Idea 2):

The mission of Alameda Unified School District Special Education in ~~collaboration~~ partnership with families and the community is to ensure that our diverse preschool through adult learners reach their greatest potential in a learning environment that is engaging, challenging, rigorous, culturally responsive, least restrictive research-based, and safe and inclusive taught and supported by highly trained qualified professionals so that each student can excel as engaged participants in our local and global communities.