

Career kick-off with UPMC at Heinz Field

Wednesday, June 29, UPMC will host its first Pathways for Students Career Fair at Heinz Field to support and celebrate the class of '22 and grads from other recent classes!

An open invite

Grads and their family and friends are welcome to attend to explore careers, network, and more!

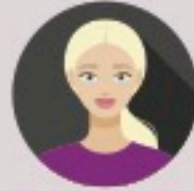

Explore opportunities

UPMC often has job openings in a variety of career areas:

- Nursing support staff
- Medical assistants
- Customer service
- Environmental service associates
- Warehouse workers
- Food service attendants

Event extras

- Resume assistance (welcome to bring current resume)
- Guidance on how to ace interviews
- One-on-one meetings with hiring managers
- Opportunities to apply to open UPMC positions
- After networking, everyone is welcome to celebrate with food, music, and giveaways!

UPMC HEALTH PLAN
UPMC
LIFE CHANGING MEDICINE

Interested attendees can register at upmchp.us/studentcareers

Free Parking

Complimentary parking will be available in Gold Lot 1A.

Questions?

If you have any questions, please contact PathwaysForStudents@upmc.edu.

Support from a legendary hometown hero! Former Pittsburgh Steelers' quarterback, Charlie Batch, will be there cheering on success!*

* Charlie Batch will be in attendance only for a portion of the event. Autographs will not be available.

UPMC Pathways for Students Career Fair
Heinz Field in the FedEx Great Hall
June 29 from 3 to 7 p.m.