PRIDE rejuvenation

- Significant training for all staff and students will occur in the preservice days, PRIDE Camp, and the first weeks of school
- More people on the PRIDE committee
- Differentiated Training
- PRIDE Assembly
- PRIDE Factor: more information to teachers regarding what it is and why so more people participate
- PRIDE Lessons
 - Combination of direction and autonomy
 - Lesson direction with flexibility
 - Prompt with discussion can be difficult early on since kids don't know each other well. Early on, specific directions; mid-semester, more open to prompt and discussion
 - Consistency from one semester to the next
 - Fun and engaging, not all serious - TikTok, emojis
 - Let PLCs come up with ideas specifically for their subject
- Other ideas
 - Club Promotion of PRIDE, bring back Club Rush, Club Board in the Counseling Office, more visible promotion of clubs and sporting events
 - Important to promote getting involved: INITIATE
 - Sports segment in the announcements
 - Highlight a club on the announcements each week

- More bulletin boards in the hallways
- Consider reading the announcements once a week

Thoughts on possible PTO-funded new mural(s)

- Yes, good idea
- No naked men with swords (Trojan mascot)
- Pops of color, logos, wraps, PRIDE, new signage

Idea for new Open House format

- Liking the idea
- Courtyard, gym
- Vendors, community partners
- Clubs and sports
- Individual videos with the typical Open House information

Next Meeting: May 19, 2022
