Davie County Schools Names Wendi Maglio as Central Davie Academy Principal

Davie County Schools has named Wendi Maglio as the new principal for Central Davie Academy, upon the retirement of Beth Edwards. Most recently an assistant principal at Davie County High School, Maglio has been in education for 27 years, with a strong background in Exceptional Children. She has taught at the elementary, middle and high school levels and held leadership roles at the high school level. She is a student advocate, with a deep understanding of student learning and strong desire for their success. She has served as a trusted resource to families, through her care of students and parents.

Ms. Maglio holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Appalachian State University and a Masters in Executive Leadership from Gardner-Webb University. Ms. Maglio has two children and lives in Winston-Salem. She will assume her new role this summer.

Davie County Schools (DCS) proudly serves Pre-K and K-12 students in the Piedmont Triad, just west of Winston-Salem. DCS includes 6 elementary schools, 3 middle schools, Davie County High School, Davie County Early College High School, Central Davie Academy, and Davie County Virtual School with a mission to engage, equip, and empower students. DCS provides a safe, innovative learning environment where each individual is valued, respected, and challenged. An engaging staff and community ensure students learn, grow, create, and discover their talents through experiences that prepare them for success. With a robust arts program, Career and Technical Education and home to the War Eagles, Davie County High School is a member of the Central Piedmont 4-A Conference, offering competitive and well-rounded experiences for students and student-athletes.
