

2022 English Summer Reading Guide:
English 1 (Both Levels) - All Incoming 9th Graders

Instructions:

- Read Dear Martin by Nic Stone before the first day of school. Obtain the physical book, not an ebook. For most in-class work related to the book, you will not be able to use your iPad, so you need your own physical copy.
 - NOTE: Students who use an audiobook to support reading should read along in their physical copy while listening. Students should not use only an audiobook.
- Annotate while you read to slow down and track your thinking. See the questions in the assignment below for guidance on what you might think about while reading.
- Complete the assignment linked below. This will be submitted for a grade the first week of school. Your English teacher will instruct you on how to submit it once school starts.

Dear Martin by Nic Stone

ISBN-13: 978-1101939529

“Justyce McAllister is a good kid, an honor student, and always there to help a friend—but none of that matters to the police officer who just put him in handcuffs. Despite leaving his rough neighborhood behind, he can't escape the scorn of his former peers or the ridicule of his new classmates. Justyce looks to the teachings of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. for answers. But do they hold up anymore? He starts a journal to Dr. King to find out. Then comes the day Justyce goes driving with his best friend, Manny, windows rolled down, music turned up—way up, sparking the fury of a white off-duty cop beside them. Words fly. Shots are fired. Justyce and Manny are caught in the crosshairs. In the media fallout, it's Justyce who is under attack.”

Assignment:

- Complete the assignment (linked below) that corresponds to your course on your class schedule. Make a copy of the Doc in Google Drive to complete it on your own. Do not request access to it. Be careful that you are using a Google account you will not lose access to. If you have a middle school Google account, you might lose access to it during the summer.
