Talk Sup Week 9 Review and Preview

November 5, 2018

Good morning Sayreville! I hope you had a relaxing and enjoyable weekend. Welcome to another edition of Talk Sup Review and Preview.

Last Thursday evening I visited the Sayreville PROUD Resource Fair. I was inspired to see the parents and professionals who took the time to learn more about the incredible resources that are available for people, particularly children, with disabilities. Likewise, I was very impressed with the dozen or so vendors that were present and the services that they offer our students and community members. Thank you to the staff and parents that lead PROUD, especially Rhonda Davis, Victoria Haney, Kara Schlaline, and Jennifer Barreiro, for coordinating such a beneficial activity.

As you know, this Tuesday (November 6th) our schools will be closed so that our community members can vote and so that our staff can engage in a full day of professional development and training. Please fulfill your civic duty and remember to vote. Moreover, please consider taking your children with you to the polling center. Not only is this an incredibly valuable learning experience for them, you will also be modeling for them the responsibility of citizens in a democratic society.

This past week our amazing students continued to impress and inspire us with their accomplishments in and out of the classroom. This fall the 2018-2019 Sayreville War Memorial High School (SWMHS) Varsity Cheerleading Team demonstrated the definition of dedication. In June, their season began by cheering on the Unified Sports athletes during the spring track events. Their school spirit and community service continued into July when they assisted with the Camp XL Bomber games at the high school. The Cheer Team then traveled to World Cup in August to work on more advanced skills and incorporate elite stunting into their halftime performances. Ms. Krainski, the Cheer Team Head Coach, choreographed the halftime performance, utilizing all of the stunts that were mastered during camp. During this, practice often took place three times a week so that the team could prepare for the upcoming football season.

In October, the team performed their halftime routine and hello cheer at the SWMHS fall pep rally. Their Junior Bomber fundraiser was also a grand success. In fact, they hosted 54 Sayreville students from grades K-5 at a varsity practice and cheered with them at a football game. During that game the cheerleaders worked together with the SWMHS Marching Band and performed the internet sensation “Baby Shark” with all the Junior Bomber participants on the sideline. On Thursday, November 15th, the Cheer Team will support the Unified Sports athletes during their unified soccer games. Please join them to cheer on the participants at the SWMHS football field. With competition season around the corner, the team will soon shift its focus on its competition routine.

We commend and congratulate Ms. Theresa Chuntz, English Teacher at SWMHS and Advisor for Echo Lites, the SWMHS school newspaper, and all the amazing students who either wrote articles, or participated in the editing, formatting, and/or publishing of this year's first edition, which went live on Sunday. Please take the time to read it. In order to do so, click on the following link: www.echolites.net. Moving forward, they will publish a new batch of articles on the first Friday of every month.

In athletics, we congratulate our October Athletes of the Month, who were recently recognized by the SWMHS Athletics Department. See them below.
