Rena Korb said that she would like to see a new Superintendent that is unbiased, thinks objectively, and is able pivot quickly. In addition, she requested the Board to look for a search firm that has experience with staffing large urban districts.

Randi Paynter spoke about what she would like to see in a recruitment firm for the Superintendent. She cautioned the Board about hiring a search firm that already has a relationship with the District as she would like the search firm to conduct a thorough and meaningful community engagement. She also wanted to see questions asked that would determine which firm would provide an unbiased and robust search.
