◆◆ APPROPRIATE STUDENT ATTIRE AND BEHAVIOR ◆◆

A graduation ceremony is a formal event.
Students should dress and act accordingly.

- 1 Wear appropriate footwear (no tennis shoes or flip flops).
- 2 Dress pants or a dress/skirt are recommended.
- 3 Do not wear extra layers (like a sport coat), as it can get warm in a robe.
- 4 Cell phones, watches, and other electronic devices should be silenced.

Students who intend to detract from the appropriate decorum by wearing inappropriate attire, being under the influence of chemicals, or by engaging in disruptive behavior will not be allowed to participate in the ceremony.

FINAL TRANSCRIPTS

Seniors need to request their final transcript to be sent to colleges.

Your College will be requesting your final Chanhassen High School transcript. To send a final transcript, you will use Parchment www.parchment.com.

Please select “Hold for Grades” under the drop down menu of “When do you want this sent?”

The screenshots illustrate the steps for requesting a transcript on the Parchment platform:

1. Clicking the "Order" button to initiate the request.
2. Using the search field to specify the delivery destination.
3. Selecting "Send Now" from the "When do you want this sent?" dropdown menu.
4. Selecting "Hold for Grades" from the "When do you want this sent?" dropdown menu.
