

Honors Latin 3
Summer Reading, 2022

Honors Latin 3 is a reading course that focuses on the events that took place during the Roman Republic and the transition to Empire. Julius Caesar was clearly an essential part of this transition. Students in Honors Latin 3 will spend a lot of time studying Caesar and his account of his own adventures in Gaul before he returned to Rome and declared himself dictator, effectively bringing the Roman Republic to an end.

Barry Strauss' account of Caesar's assassination and what happened before that fateful day is intriguing and well-written. Fun vacation reading!!
