

Clear Creek ISD Summer Reading

Secondary Choice Board

Make a Tiktok style video about a book.	Look at your favorite candy bar, read the ingredients, and research 3 of the ingredients you do not recognize.	Rewrite the ending to your favorite movie/book.	Write a letter to your 5th grade self about what you wish you would have known about intermediate school.	Create a list of 5 places you would want to travel as a teenager and read about one of the places.
Create a meme related to a book.	Create a comic strip using the characters within your novel of choice.	Read out of your comfort zone! Try a Manga or a genre you don't usually read.	Log into the Portal and search in Destiny for 5 books that look interesting that you would like to read.	Cook something that would pair with your book.
Check out an ebook on SORA.	Take a virtual field trip. Make a list of things you learned.	Make your own joke book. Collect school appropriate jokes and riddles from your family and friends.	Read a book that became a movie.	Find a DIY to create and create it. Make a list and directions of how you created your DIY.
Read outside.	Read to someone virtually or live.	Search for and read a biography on someone you are interested in.	Write a story with your favorite Texas mascot as a character.	Write interview questions for Orbit.
Read while in a car.	Read on a device.	Read while it is raining.	Read on a picnic.	Read in your PJs.
Read on a day when the temperature is a triple digit number (100+ degrees).	Create a postcard from one of the locations in your book.	Check out an audio book on SORA.	Write something that you are hopeful for in the coming year.	Read everyday for 30 minutes for 5 days in a row.
