Planning Professional Development Policy – KRS 160.345 (8)

POLICY STATEMENT

The Comprehensive and Effective Planning Committee and the principal shall ensure that the professional growth and development needs of staff are included in the needs assessment portion of the planning process. Appropriate objective and strategies shall be included in the school improvement plan to provide for these needs for the coming school year. The principal shall be responsible for ensuring that the school plans professional development in coordination with the other schools and the professional development coordinator for the school district.

Approval of the school improvement plan will also constitute approval of the school professional development offerings for the coming year. Professional development that is approved must be in the comprehensive school improvement plan, the individual staff member's professional growth plan or receive prior approval from the principal.
