- Jessica Simmons gave an update on the National Dropout Prevention Planning Institute. The middle school and high school committee attended a workshop to discuss the impact of dropouts on a community. Each dropout costs the community $500,000. Target areas and goals for Stephens County were created at the workshop. Committee is excited about looking at the whole school system and community as playing a role in student's learning. CTAE is involved in looking at current pathways and having discussions with all students on Industry Pathways. MS is possibly looking at Connections classes to match HS pathways. These teacher leaders will start pushing out the information to all faculty/staff/community.
- PLC teams are currently looking at assessment tools purchased and assessing as to what to keep for next year.
- SB 401 Amendment - schools must include Sexual Abuse and Assault Prevention into the curriculum. The QBE (Quality Basic Education) funding states that this is a requirement starting next school year. SCHS will implement a course within the Health class. This course will be purchased as a digital bundle ($500/3 years) and will include approximately 2 weeks of lessons. Middle school is also looking at the same digital lesson bundle.
