II. Student Achievement Report	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. No student data at this time-Spring MAP testing and KPREP testing was cancelled.</li> </ul>
III. Planning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Second Reading of:  -Student Assignment- The decision</li> </ul> was made to leave out the turn it date for parent requests, and just state to turn them into the office. All members are in agreement with the policy.

-School Day and Week- Members agreed on the given policy

-School Space- Members agreed on the given policy

Niki Cornett made a motion to accept the second reading of the Student Assignment, School Day and Week and School Space policies. The motion was seconded by Kally Barnett.

- b. First reading of Wellness Policy- All members agreed on the first reading of the Wellness Policy Discussion was had over temperatures of going outside. Ms. White will be checking on guidelines for this.

Also, on rainy days, the gym is used and bus loop area is used.

Chelsea Mays made a motion to accept the first reading of the Wellness Policy. Casey Hall seconded the motion.

- c. Master Schedule 2020-2021
Discussion of library going from weekly, to bi weekly. Teachers discussed how it relieves them going to the library unnecessarily. It does promote literacy by having it every week.

For guidance counseling, a discussion was made about having Jody assist Casey with ARC meetings allowing Casey to meet for guidance classes. To assist with the technology issues and library, people can be utilized. Parent volunteers, Mary Duff and the student leadership team are possible options.

Having a guidance schedule already in place will help Casey schedule ARCs.

	Discussion was had with Maxey about having another administrative team member to assist in the behavior concerns. By having Jody more would be a help. Possible position opening in the intermediate grade.
IV.	a. Section 6 Budget Report Maxey gave approval for technology renewals White spoke to Tessa about money in Leadership Lighthouse to get clearance to allow academic team coaches $1,000. Kally Barnett made a motion to accept the Section 6 Budget report. Kally Barnett seconded the motion. b. Title I Budget Report for February
V. New Business	a. NTI update May 4th is the projected date of return contingent on Gov. orders. The current packet will be turned in on May 4th and no other packet will be required for this date. Good percentage rate of return of the packet. For example, 87 out of 90 Kindergarten packets have been returned. Looks similar across grade levels. District page includes information on NTI days and mental well being. Site base nominations will be open until Friday. Casey is taking care of nominations and voting process through google and email. The council will look into guidelines of who can be on the council based upon the grade level they teach.
VI. Adjourn	Adjournment at 11:30
