

ALUMNI SAINT In the Spotlight

"I am super grateful for the career path I have chosen with the City of Charleston Police Department in South Carolina.

I am extremely proud to be able to protect and serve my community, and to uphold my badge and responsibilities. Being a former multi-sport high school athlete and D1 college athlete, I can take that competitive and vigorous mindset and put it wholeheartedly into my career, which not everyone gets an opportunity to do every day."

Brooke Wensel (BC 2015)

Brooke Wensel (BC 2015) is a Police Officer with the City of Charleston Police Department in South Carolina.

How do you feel your education from BC, CC or HN helped get you where you are today? Do you credit any teachers/peers/classes?

My experiences and education from Berks Catholic has helped me today to be a well-rounded person and a better human being. Being in an environment that shapes intellectual, social, emotional, and spiritual abilities is a huge advantage as a teenager compared to other people growing up. Mrs. Urban (Reddy at the time), Mrs. Moulton, Miss Marm, Miss Murphy, Deacon Lanciano, and Mr. Ricco were all important aides in my development as a student. My coaches were also very important in my success today, accrediting Coach Bob Birmingham, Coach Brenda Morgan, and Coach John Marabella. I also give most of the credit to my parents because they have worked so hard to give me every opportunity they can to allow me to do what I love and want to pursue in life.

What advice would you give to current Berks Catholic students?

I would tell Berks Catholic students to be comfortable with being uncomfortable. Whether that relates to academics, athletics, relationships and friendships, life decisions, etc., having the mentality that there will always be a learning opportunity in everything you do is so beneficial and a crucial concept to master.

Tell us a little bit about yourself and what you like to do in your spare time.

In my spare time, I love doing anything active whether that is working out, playing sports, going on a hike or to the beach, etc. I am also one of the most competitive people you will ever meet, which helps me live my life to the best I want it to be. Knowing that I've put the most into everything I do is very rewarding, and winning just makes it more fun:)
