Congratulations Colton and Karma, keep up the good work. We are proud of you!

EXHIBITION NIGHT

On February 27th, the fourth and fifth graders of East Elementary School will be putting on an Exhibition Night from 5:00-6:00 p.m. The students have worked very hard on projects that cover almost all content areas and are excited to show what they have learned! This night will be a gallery walk style presentation where visitors are encouraged to stop and ask the students about their learning while doing their projects. The hard-working students and staff would love to see you come out and show your support as the students demonstrate that there's no such thing as being too young for Project Based Learning!

East Good Citizens

Each month, East focuses on a character trait. February's character trait is Caring. Teachers choose a Good Citizen who consistently exhibits the character trait of the month. Good Citizens' pictures are in our large display case, located inside the main doors by the office. We also feature the students in a google hangout (live video) that is shown to all students at East. On February 1st the Good Citizens will enjoy a lunch and a dessert with our special guest, Specialist Seth Lingrell from the United States Army. The dessert was provided by the Climber Club. Congratulations to the following Good Citizens for February/Caring: Kaelyn Bayless, Sadiee Tucker, Kaylenn Adams, Morgan Boyd, Gavin Dyer, Austin Hill, Peach Newkirk, Sean Caulfield, Emily Fisher, Will Traylor, Zoe Shaffner, Malayna Melvin, Emma Smith, Zaidan Johnson, Sierra Reed, Zane Collins, Jaylynn Hoermle, Blaze Fiorini
