SUMMER READING

Hi all,

Yes we have summer reading to do. However, don't be too afraid. I have outlined the work and process below.

Please read the book Their Eyes were Watching God by Zora Neale Hurston. It is available at our textbook room. Probably best to purchase on your own. Up to you.

While reading, please write down any quotes down about the following general topics:

Domesticity (What does it mean for a woman to be "domestic"?)

Strength of the female gender (What forms of strength do the women in this book show?)

Race (How was race discussed in this book?)

By the first day of school for the 2022/2023 school year please have 10 quotes written down about any of the above topics using the following quote journal example:

Page: 142

Quote: "They all heard what they had to do and silently huddled together"

Topic: Community

Analysis: Even though it was a terrible situation and they could have quit, they knew they were better off if they worked together.

Please plan on writing an essay using your quotes in the first week or so of school. As always let me know if you have any questions.
