THE CARDIGAN HYMN

Lyrics by Robert C. Hopkins

Music by Rev. Harold Finkbeiner, Jr.

To Cardigan our favored school
By nature's gifts benign—
We raise in song our thankfulness
For beauty which is thine:
For winter's snow,
For afterglow
When day fades into dreams
Of goals toward which we all will strive
To keep Thy faiths alive;
To keep Thy faith in us alive,
Together we will strive.

As Cardigan is mirrored in
Our crystal lake so clear
May we through life reflect Thy truths
And memories as dear;
Of summer's green;
Fall's colors bright;
Of glimmering stars at night.
God give us strength to carry on
Through storm or weather fair.
The peace, vouchsafed by living here,
For all the world to share.
