

4rd Grade

Required Summer Reading

Welcome to Fourth Grade! We have an exciting year ahead of us. We will read tons of wonderful and exciting books this year. This summer, we will focus on friendship and what it means to be a good friend.

1. Every girl in grades 1-12 will read The Boy, The Mole, The Fox, and the Horse by Charlie Mackesy.
2. Every fourth grader will read The Year of the Book by Andrea Cheng.
3. Choose two books from the list below.
4. Complete the writing prompt about friendship.
5. But don't stop there! Keep reading! Log each additional book you read this summer on your summer reading log.

Happy Reading!

Mrs. Ferguson

Summer Reading Response

- Read the prompt below.
- Before you start writing, give yourself time to think about your answer.
- You can write or type your response that answers all the questions below. This can be one paragraph or multiple paragraphs.
- Write in complete sentences, using capitalization and punctuation.
- Add a title and your name to the top of the paper.

Prompt: What does friendship mean to you? Are all friends the same, or are there different types of friends? What is the main reason you want to become friends with someone? After completing your summer reading, what did you learn about friendship? Do you notice any similarities or differences between you and any of the characters? If so, what are they?
