AT & T

<https://www.att.com/shop/internet/access>

AT&T is offering low-cost wireline home Internet service to qualifying households:

- With at least one resident who participates in the U.S. Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) and
- With an address in AT&T's 21-state service area, at which we offer wireline home Internet service, and
- Without outstanding debt for AT&T fixed Internet service within the last six months or outstanding debt incurred under this program.
- If you are a California resident and at least one member of your household receives Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits you also may qualify based on the same requirements that apply to SNAP participants.

Service availability and speed may vary by address. AT&T will assign you the fastest of these speed tiers available* where you live:

- 10 megabits per second, for $10 per month
 - 5 megabits per second, for $10 per month
 - 3 megabits per second, for $5 per month
 - 1.5 megabits per second, for $5 per month

- 768 kilobits per second, for $5 per month

If none of the above speeds are technically available at your address, unfortunately you won't be able to participate in the Access program from AT&T at this time.

METRO NET

<https://metronetinc.com/phone/lifeline>

If you are on a budget and have not been able to afford phone or broadband service, MetroNet is committed to helping qualified individuals pay for phone or broadband service through the Lifeline Program.

In order to receive the Lifeline discount for phone service, you must subscribe to a flat rate residential local exchange service. In order to receive the Lifeline discount for broadband service, you must subscribe to our Lifeline Internet service. The service must be at your principal place of residence and must be your only Lifeline service. Additionally, you must certify that you are the head of your household and that you are currently receiving assistance from one of the following programs:

- Medicaid
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Federal Public Housing Assistance or Section 8
- Tribal-specific Programs
- Veterans Pension and Survivors Benefit Programs

You may also qualify if your annual income is at or below 135% of Federal Poverty Guidelines. If you qualify under the Federal Poverty Guideline, you must submit proof to MetroNet. You may not be listed as a dependent on another person's tax return.

After MetroNet receives your completed application, an effective date will be established for your discounts to begin. You must notify MetroNet when you are no longer eligible for Lifeline Service.

MetroNet verifies a random sampling of customers annually to determine eligibility status by sending a verification letter and a new application. If a customer is identified as ineligible, he or she will be notified that Lifeline will be discontinued.

For further information, please contact customer service and a MetroNet representative will be happy to answer your questions. 1-844-684-0215
