Series 400: Certified Personnel: Instructional Considerations

Policy No. 405.14

Policy Title: Spouse, Child or Sibling Supervision

It is the policy of the Board of Trustees that no employee may be under the direct supervision of a spouse, child or sibling except under extraordinary conditions and only then by authorization of the Board of Trustees.

Direct supervision shall be when a person has the authority to change the established routine, has authority to upgrade by evaluation or has pecuniary interest in another person's contract: i.e., principals are direct supervisors of their building's staff.
