Parish Updates & Events

Message sent May 26, 2022: Dear OLG Community,

Today, with mixed emotions, I share with you that Irene Zaso, parishioner and our Communications Director, has informed me of her decision to transition from OLG to PVI to assume their communications position. Irene has and will continue to be a parishioner at OLG. She began as a volunteer managing the school website and then was hired to combine the school and church websites. In 2017, she became our Communications Director and has helped us to expand our communications from bulletin and website to weekly emails, as well as more focused social communications, and a variety of outreach during COVID. I am very grateful for her service to the OLG community and ask you to join me in wishing her blessings in her new position. Please join us on Saturday, June 18th after the 4pm Mass for a reception to wish her well. Live Jesus! Fr. Matt

Dear OLG Family,

I have exciting news to share! While I have enjoyed working in my parish community that I love, my last day at OLG will be June 23rd. Though I will miss working with the staff and the OLG Community, I am excited to start at St. Paul VI Catholic High School as their Director of Communications. My daughters graduated from there, and my son is currently assigned there as a Youth Apostle Missionary. PVI is my other community family, and I look forward to supporting them as I have done here. Over the past 12 years, I have worked hard to upgrade OLG's website and social media presence and develop processes and procedures to make communication better within and outside of OLG. I am thankful for having had the opportunity to work at OLG alongside our fabulous staff, volunteers, and organizations. Thank you for all the support you have provided me, and I will continue to see you at Mass and OLG events. Over the next few weeks, I will work with Fr. Matt, Robin, and the staff on a transition plan. If you or anyone you know might be interested in the position, please let Fr. Matt know. God Bless Irene Zaso

Message sent June 3, 2022: Dear OLG Community,

With mixed emotions, I send you this announcement. Gerard Hall, our Director of Liturgy, is announcing his departure from the OLG staff. Gerard and I started at OLG on the exact same day, July 1, 2016. During his time here, he has served faithfully as our Director of Liturgy, musician, choir director, cantor (at times), facilities manager, and other varied duties. I am very grateful for his ministry to our community. I am sad for us that he is leaving, but I am also happy for him as he is pursuing a position that is very well suited for him and one which he loves. Gerard will become the Director of the Office of Worship for the Diocese of Green Bay, Wisconsin. Please join me in thanking Gerard for his service and ministry to our community and wishing him God's blessing upon his new ministry. Even though Gerard is leaving the OLG staff, I know that the OLG Community will continue to have a special place in his heart.

Live Jesus!

Fr. Matt

Dear Friends,

For the past six years, I have had the privilege of serving the OLG Community as Director of Liturgy. From day one, this Community has welcomed me, challenged me, and served alongside me as we worked together to provide for the worship and prayer of OLG. Today, with mixed emotions, I am writing to let you know that I will be leaving OLG at the end of June. I have taken a position as Director of Worship for the Diocese of Green Bay. As many of you know, much of my ministry has been played out on the Diocesan level. OLG came into my life when I needed it most. Over these past six years, you have provided me with the necessary perspective that makes it possible for me to move forward in this next leg of my journey. Although goodbyes are hard, I am extremely proud of what has been accomplished together. And I echo what Fr. Matt shared in his Musing two weeks ago, what St. Francis de Sales says about leaving: "Those who go, stay; those who stay, go." Please be assured that I am taking OLG with me. You will forever be in my ministry, my prayer, and my heart.

In Christ, Gerard

Please come to a reception on Sat. June 18th after the 4pm Mass, to wish Gerard Hall, Director of Liturgy, and Irene Zaso, Director of Communications, well as they move on to the next chapter of their lives.

Gerard will become the Director of the Office of Worship for the Diocese of Green Bay, Wisconsin. Irene will be the Director of Communications at St. Paul VI Catholic High School in Chantilly, VA.

The Smiles for Miles toothbrush drive, conducted by OLGC Girl Scout Troop 5689 in April, was very successful with a total collection of 728 toothbrushes! Thank you to all who contributed as these toothbrushes will go to needy children in Central America who have little access to modern dental hygiene. We are grateful for your generosity!

OLGC received a check for $27,000 for our participation in the All Saints Car Raffle. Thank you to everyone who purchased or sold tickets! There were two cash winners from OLGC, Maribeth Lavecchia and the Haig Family. For more details, visit their website at <https://allsaintsvachurch.org/giving/car-raffle/>.

The May Outreach Project for the Yellow Ribbon Fun was a Success! The OLGC Community raised over $8,000 in cash, checks, gift cards and online donations for the veteran service organization dedicated to assisting severely wounded, ill, and injured service members and enable families facing medical crises to stay together during the critical recuperation phase.

The weekend of May 21st, with the help of Boy Scout Troop 976, I conducted my Eagle Scout Project, which was creating a garden filled with native plants behind the Our Lady of Good Counsel Church & Rectory. I would like to thank my fellow scouts and troop leaders, as well as everyone at the church for their support, especially Deirdre Doerflinger, Chair of the OLGC Garden Committee. We could not have done it without you! Thanks, Adrian Kladakis. View pictures on the SmugMug Gallery <https://olgciennava.smugmug.com/Parish/2022-garden/>.

Garden Committee Update: Do you like garden, plant, or just like flowers? Consider joining the OLGC Gardening Committee or maybe with some friends to sponsor or take on a specific area of the campus to maintain. Thank you to Alexia & Carlos Berrios for maintaining Mary's Garden and Alice Plett for maintaining the side of Church at exit only garden. For more information contact Deirdre Doerflinger dflingers@verizon.net.

Congratulations to the OLGC CYO Track & Field Team! The team scored the SECOND most total points out of 22 participating schools. Our 3rd and 4th grade boys and girls teams combined for a total of 230 points, which is incredible! Many runners received new school records 8th grade boys 400m and 3rd and 4th grade girls and boys shot put.

The OLGC Co-ed Softball League is back for another fun season!! We are looking forward to our seventh season after some fantastic games with a great group of men and women. We hope to maintain four teams this season so WE NEED YOU! We will hold informal practices on Friday evenings starting in June. The games will be played on Sunday afternoons beginning in July and wrapping up in August/September with a league wide tournament culminating in a celebratory league wide end-of-season party. All skill levels are welcome. New players will be added to existing teams by the league with player input with the goal of equalizing teams. There is a player fee of $25. If you order a jersey, there will be an additional fee of $15. ## Parish Updates & Events

Congratulations!

On Pentecost Sunday, June 6th, Marcela Gonyea, Mafer Mayorga and Eseosa Orumwense, parishioners from OLG, received the Sacrament of Confirmation with Bishop Burbidge at the Cathedral of St. Thomas More. Many congratulations and blessings to them as they celebrate their full initiation into the Catholic Church and soak in the gifts of the Holy Spirit!

OLGC School Preschool-8th grade www.olgcschool.org 703.938.3600

3rd graders chose a fictional book to read, and they created a cereal based on their book! The cereal "ingredients" were the characters and setting, the game on the back featured an important part of the plot of the story, and their projects even included a prize inside!

Congratulations to the Class of 2022!
We know their light will continue to shine brightly,
and they will always remain a Wildcat!

Class of 2022

OLGC School is hiring many teachers and assistants for the 2022-2023 school year. If interested, please send your resume to Mrs. Jewett ajewett@olgcva.org or Mrs. Williams rwilliams@olgcva.org.

Querida Comunidad Parroquial, con emociones encontradas, les comparto que Irene Zaso, la directora de comunicaciones me ha informado de su decisión de hacer la transición de nuestra parroquia a la Escuela Secundaria Católica San Paul VI para asumir su puesto de comunicaciones. Además, Gerard Hall, nuestro Director de Liturgia, anuncia su partida de nuestra parroquia. Gerard y yo comenzamos aquí exactamente el mismo día, 1 de julio de 2016. Durante su tiempo aquí, ha servido fielmente como nuestro Director de Liturgia, músico, director de coro, cantor (a veces), administrador de instalaciones y otras funciones variadas. Estoy muy agradecido por su ministerio a nuestra comunidad. Está asumiendo una posición de director de la Oficina de devoción de la Diócesis de Green Bay, Wisconsin. Estoy muy agradecido por el servicio que ellos dos han dado a nuestra comunidad y les pido que se unan a mí para desearles bendiciones en sus nuevas posiciones. Acompañenme el sábado 18 de junio después de la misa de las 4 p. m. habrá una recepción para desearles lo mejor en el nuevo capítulo de sus vidas.

WHAT WOULD JESUS DO IN OLD AGE? – This article was brought to my attention by a parishioner in response to “God Moments,” which appeared in the May 29th Senior Moments. It was written by Patrick G. Reardon and Patrick T. Reardon as an opinion piece for the National Catholic Reporter in its May 21st issue. I think it’s worth passing on for a new and unique perspective of the aging process. I especially like its conclusion, which has such a strong Salesian flavor. Unfortunately, it’s too long to fit into this space in its entirety, so half of it is here, and the other half follows next week. I changed the paragraphing and only one word, which wasn’t appropriate here. Otherwise, it’s as it appeared.

“When you get to be old codgers as we are, you recognize that Jesus never made it to his 70s or 80s. This guy who is the model for every Christian – What would Jesus do? – spent a lot of his life getting ready for his work. Then came his active ministry of three years. And then his crucifixion at the age of 33.

We remember our 30s and all the world-changing energy we had. We know what it’s like to go full throttle all day and get by on a few hours/sleep and have endless amounts of ambition to right wrongs. We can see Jesus walking up and down Galilee and into Samaria and up to Jerusalem. We know how he felt. We can see him joining the disciples to pass around the five loaves and two fishes to feed the multitude. We can see him preaching the Sermon on the Mount. And we can see him in the temple, knocking over the tables, whipping the moneychangers, and driving out the oxen and sheep sold there for sacrifice.

We can’t see ourselves doing that. Not anymore. But one thing, people would just laugh at two old dodderers trying to be heard over the din of that mercantile space. And, for another, some bouncer – hopefully, a kindly bouncer – would simply step in and herd us to the door. We couldn’t physically do it. And, truth be told, we’d have a hard time stoking up enough fire of indignation to carry it off. Over our many decades, we’ve seen a lot and done a lot, and been indignant about a lot. Now, we’re kind of tired and a little sad. What would Jesus do if he were 70 or 80? We’re trying to figure that out.

We used to be gladiators in the arena of fighting for what’s right, as members of a band of knights on a quest for the holy grail – one of us as a priest and then an attorney, the other as a newspaper reporter. And we still do a little of that. But, as we said to each other over breakfast the other day at a corner diner, the world has let us know it doesn’t need us anymore. Often, each of us feels like an aging dot of flesh clinging to the tiny rock of earth hurtling at dizzying speeds past stars and whole galaxies in an edgeless universe.

In our 30s, we felt our efforts were essential to the betterment of the human race. Now, if one of us is standing on the El train in Chicago, a young woman – pregnant! – will give up her seat for him. (This happened. More than once.)

One thing we’re pretty sure is that if Jesus was, say, 75, he’d join us for breakfast. Or for lunch. Or for a weekly golf game. Or for a very slow game of basketball. (If you ever want to feel old, just get into a game with three or four guys in their 30s and watch them fly up and down the court, barely taking a breath.) We do a lot of these social things because, well, we have the time.” (To be continued,)

CHILLIN’ ON CHURCH – Big Bad JuJu is the band that’s featured on June 17th as part of the free music program in Vienna this summer. Everything begins at 6:30 pm. Treat yourselves to a fun evening right here on Church St. in the heart of Vienna!

NEW TRIP – On July 9th, it’s off to the Shenandoah Summer Music Theatre to see “42nd Street”, the story of an understudy determined to be a star. It features memorable tunes from the Great American Songbook, such as “We’re in the Money” and “The Lullaby of Broadway”. With some of the greatest show-stopping production numbers that the world has ever known, it promises to be a feast for the eyes and ears. You’ll stop for lunch before the show at the Old Town Winchester Walking Mall, a nice pedestrian street with cafes, shops, and historic buildings. It’s an easy stroll from one end to the other. Lunch is not included in the trip fee of $75 for Vienna residents, $93.75 for everyone else. Register online via WebTrac or stop by the Vienna Community Center desk.

ELDER WISDOM – “Accepting change is quite as important as defending the past.” (from “Downton Abbey”)

Attention Class of 2022: The Associates of St. John Bosco invites rising college freshmen to attend a College Night at one of the following parishes:

June 29 - St. Mark's
July 6 - St. Michael's
July 20 - Basilica of St. Mary (held at St. Mary's Lyceum)
July 27 - St. Mary's Fredericksburg (held at Holy Cross Academy)

College Nights help rising college freshmen and transfer students to network with other Catholics heading to college, and give students the tools to navigate the often difficult transition of faith life in college. Students hear from upperclassmen who give their personal testimonies about how they transitioned to college and maintained a strong faith life. There are small groups divided by students' universities and students walk away with a free bundle of Catholic books called the "Bosco Bundle" to bring to college that will help them deepen their faith while away at school. The events come with a free pizza dinner, too. Please encourage your senior to sign up! For more information, please visit www.asjb.org. Registrations limited to 50 students per night.
