Love’s Mission and Vision

Mission: We have a moral imperative of ensuring equitable outcomes of college and career readiness in Alameda. Therefore, we must provide our diverse Title I students with engaging, integrated curriculum, personalized learning opportunities, and an empowering school culture that supports the whole child.

Vision: All students will have exceptional 21st century skills empowering them to be deep thinkers, positive, hard-working contributors and leaders in our global community with readiness for any academic and career path.
