Short agenda for September meeting

Normally, the CISD Board of Trustees has a short slate of items to consider after the start of school. This September meeting followed true to tradition. Items approved by the Board included:

- School Health Advisory Council members including staff Kathy Myers, Alison Walker, Joe Venable and Amanda Parsley and parent members Scott Riley, Vickie McMurray, Shannon Shannon, Sarah Staton, Amber Weaver and Calbert Cannon,
- Expedited waiver for two early release days, and
- Sale of tax foreclosed property off of Spur 178.

The Board also heard as presentation on the Campus Accountability. All campuses and the district met standard, according to Dr. Patricia Tremmel, assistant superintendent.

In the Superintendent's report...

Superintendent Charlie Alderman reported an increase in enrollment of 32 students from August 21--1506.

Other items included:

- Hall of Honor Induction Ceremony and Luncheon, October 12,
- Current and Former Board Member Luncheon, October 18,
- Student record archiving,
- Required legislative update training for board members
