Thurman resigns as elementary principal

Commerce Elementary School Principal Bobbie Thurman has resigned her position effective December 18.

A CHS graduate, Thurman returned to Commerce in 1990 to become an administrator at the early childhood campus. After 20 years in that position, Thurman has decided to move into a new position in the field of education.

Current secondary curriculum facilitator Jeanne Lay will become interim principal at the school.

In other personnel action, John Dobson was employed as a teacher in the DAEP.

ON BOARD

In other action...

The Textbook Selection Committee was named and the district and campus improvement plans were approved.

Julia Robinson, Director of Curriculum, Special Programs and Grants, explained that the plans were revised this year to provide a more comprehensive plan across the district.

Superintendent's Report...

Enrollment down

Superintendent Cooper reported the district was down four students from October's count. However, Cooper also noted that the ADA (average daily attendance) was actually up because of a lower number of absences reported.

Highly qualified teachers reported

The District reported that 100 percent of its teachers and paraprofessionals met the highly qualified standard as required by the No Child Left Behind Act. However, since the reporting period ended a teaching assignment was changed and the report to the state will be amended.

Gold Performance Acknowledgments announced

Commerce Middle School received three Gold Performance Acknowledgments from the Texas Education Agency. The school excelled in attendance, made comparable improvement in math and was commended in social studies.

The District was recognized for commended performance in social studies.
