Free first Thursday museums:

Museum of History and Industry

860 Terry Ave N

Open 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

For more family friendly things to do, news, events and travel, sign up for Seattle's Child newsletters

Museum of Flight

9404 E Marginal Way S, Tukwila

Hours: 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily; open late on first Thursday with free admission from 5 to 9 p.m.

This facility is rejoining the first Thursday museums lineup as of April 7, 2022. It's great for anyone with an interest in aviation, travel, science, history or any number of other areas. Free admission from 5-9 p.m. on the first Thursday of the month. (Bonus: Parking is always free!)

Seattle Art Museum

1300 1st Ave

Open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday

Free first Thursday tickets will give you the run of the permanent collection and special exhibitions these days. SAM is always free for kids 14 and under, discounted for teens and students and free for seniors on First Fridays. See also: 4 easy art projects inspired by a visit to Seattle Art Museum

Burke Museum

4300 15th Ave. N.E. (UW campus)

Open 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Check out the new galleries and exhibits showcasing Washington's history and culture. More information: New Burke turns the museum inside-out. And here's what it's like with masking and no hands-on activities (hint: still great).

A different free day:

Seattle Asian Art Museum

Volunteer Park, 1400 E Prospect St.

Open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday through Sunday

This newly renovated museum in Volunteer Park has a limited schedule, so its free day is the last Friday of the month. And children 14 and under are free all the time. What to see: 7 things to show your kids at the Seattle Asian Art Museum.

Washington State History Museum, Tacoma

The museum offers free admission from 3 to 8 p.m. on the third Thursday of each month. The museum showcases Washington through a variety of permanent and temporary exhibits. Its centerpiece is the Great Hall of Washington History. There also are exhibits dedicated to the incarceration of Japanese Americans during World War II; a look at the role of migration and immigration in shaping our state; and an exhibit on the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., who visited Washington in 1961. Great suggestion: While you're in Tacoma, grab a snack or meal downtown along Pacific Avenue.

Not your typical museum:

Seattle Japanese Garden

1075 Lake Washington Boulevard East, Seattle

Online Learning Resources (Teacher Recommended)

Throughout the year, Teachers have been providing websites to help students continue learning at home. These are some of the websites.

- I-ready - www.clever.com (how you get into i-ready and other programs)
 - Log into Google on Clever. All students have an account.
Their email is their S number (S01_ _ _ _)
Their password is their birthdate with only the first 3 letters of the month. An example is Apr132010 (Apr instead of April)
- ST Math - www.clever.com (how you get into ST Math and other programs)
 - Log into Google on Clever. All students have an account.
Their email is their S number (S01_ _ _ _)
Their password is their birthdate with only the first 3 letters of the month. An example is Apr132010 (Apr instead of April)
- Khan Academy - www.khanacademy.org
You can set up an account for your child and direct them to complete any lessons you would like them to do. It is especially great for math practice.
- Typing - www.typing.com
 - 2nd - 5th grade students have accounts & should know how to log in.

- Starfall - www.starfall.com
Early Reading practice!
You can use many lessons for free without logging in.
- KCLS - <https://kcls.org/elementary-school-students/>
Username: 406S01_ _ _ _ _ (your child's school number)
Password: _ _ _ _ The last 4 digits of your child's school number

Have a great
Summer!
See you in September!
