CARROLL ISD ANNOUNCES PATRICK HOLLADAY AS NEW PRINCIPAL AT JACK D. JOHNSON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

At the May 9 Board meeting, the Carroll ISD Board of Trustees unanimously voted to approve Patrick Holladay as the new Principal at Jack D. Johnson Elementary School. Having performed in administrative leadership within Mansfield ISD since 2016, Holladay joins Johnson Elementary most recently from Tarver-Rendon Elementary School and previously at Donna Shepard Intermediate Leadership Academy, where he served both campuses as Assistant Principal. Holladay earned his Master of Education degree in Educational Administration from Tarleton State University.

“Mr. Holladay is a great addition to our team at Johnson Elementary, our oldest and largest elementary school within Carroll ISD,” said Superintendent Dr. Lane Ledbetter. “He brings a wealth of relational experience both as a solutions-oriented and collaborative leader, and also as a long-time teacher well versed in best practices of instruction.”

With 26 years’ experience in education, Holladay served as a math teacher for 20 of those years throughout Texas. From his administrative roles he brings a wide range of experience in staff development and evaluations, overseeing instructional support, conducting professional development, master schedule implementation, campus behavior coordination, and safety and security management.

“I am honored by this opportunity to serve the students and staff of Johnson Elementary School and Carroll ISD,” said Holladay. “JES and CISD have a rich tradition of excellence in everything they do, and I am excited to be joining this team and Dragon Nation!”
