

PART III. PARENT PERMISSION

Your child has been referred for a possible acceleration. With your permission, the district staff shall evaluate your child for placement. The process will consist of an evaluation committee, (principal, gifted coordinator and/or a gifted staff member, current grade level teacher, teacher at the grade level to which the student may be accelerated, curriculum representative, and the parent), to determine the most appropriate learning environment for the your child. It may also be necessary to do some testing for evaluation purposes. Other data sources, maturity, desire for acceleration and past performance may also be taken into consideration.

I understand that if I grant permission, my child may receive assessment(s) and participate in the acceleration evaluation process. Information obtained by designated school personnel may be shared with teachers, principals, and other appropriate school personnel. I also agree to participate in the evaluation team process.

_____Permission is given to conduct the assessment(s) to consider my child for acceleration.

_____Permission is denied. I do not want my child to be considered for acceleration.
