Momentum Awards for Northwest Local School District

The Momentum Award is presented by the State Board of Education and recognizes schools for exceeding expectations in student growth for a year. To receive this recognition, a school must earn straight A's on all Value-Added measures on the state report card. Value-Added analysis helps educators measure the impact schools and teachers have on students' academic progress rates from year to year. Northwest Middle School and W.S. Stinson Elementary received the Momentum Award for the third straight year; the District also received the Momentum Award, one of three districts in the county.

Congratulations to our staff who demonstrate on a daily basis that the difference between ordinary and extraordinary is that little extra. They remain focused on insuring our students reach their highest potential and pursue their dreams. Congratulations to our students who work hard to maximize their learning opportunities knowing that all of their dreams are possible if they have the courage to pursue them.

It's a new year, and if you have resolved to save money, learn more, be active, or participate in your community, we're here for you! You don't have to live here to use the library and your first library card is free. Whether you work in the area, have an interest in one or more of our programs, or just prefer our personal, friendly service, you will be welcome.

The library has many programs for all ages. However, unlike most libraries, we do not have a separate space to present those programs, so they are held in the same places that the materials are kept. With these competing demands, it may mean that the materials you want are not available during programs, and also that the number of people - whether they are children, teens, or adults - that can attend a program, has to be limited. The library is actively planning to address this situation.

The Canal Fulton Public Library is located at 154 Market Street NE and is open from 9 AM to 8 PM Monday through Thursday, Friday and Saturday 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM. For more information, call 330-854-4148 or visit www.canalfultonlibrary.org.

February is Love Your Library Month. Come in for coffee and a donut Tuesday mornings, February 5, 12, 19, 26, while donuts last.

Adult Programs (no kids/teens please). All Programs start at 6:00 pm. Space is limited and registration is required. Sign up at the Information Desk.

Adult Craft Series: Come in and make some fun crafts.

February 11, February 18, March 11, March 18, March 25

Book Discussion: Our group meets the 3rd Tuesday of each month

February 19: Last Days of Café, Leila by Leila-Donia Bijan

R.G. Drage Career Technical Center

Students attending R.G. Drage Career Technical Center gain “real world” career training in addition to academics while graduating from their home school district. Currently, 73 Northwest students are enrolled at R.G. Drage. Programs range from auto collision, machining, building, HVAC/refrigeration and welding to sports medicine, health technologies, agriculture, and cosmetology. New programs this year include Sports Turf & Landscape Management and Engineering. R.G. Drage also proudly houses a student-operated restaurant and a preschool. Many students are eligible for job placement during their senior year, often leading to full-time employment after graduation. Students can also take advantage of opportunities to earn college credit while attending R.G. Drage. By taking the necessary college prep courses, students are prepared and encouraged to further their education beyond high school.

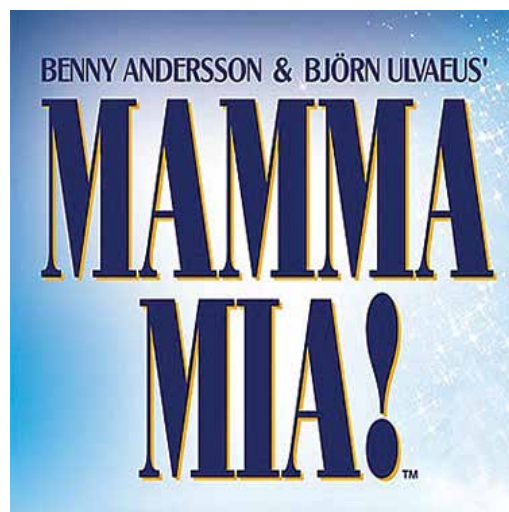

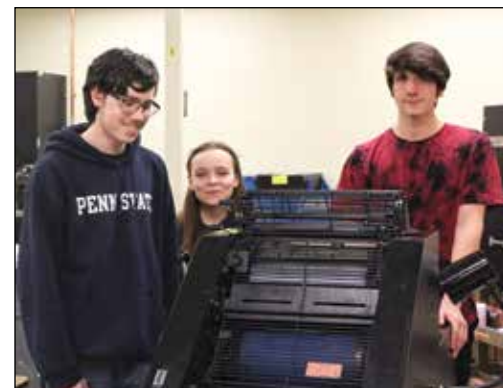

Maggie Waring chose the bakery program where she can practice skill and creativity: “I’ve always loved to be creative with food and different flavors, colors, and textures. At Drage, I get to learn with all of these things.” She is proud of earning Gold at regional and state competition last year, and she is also proud of her pro start competition this year. Maggie plans to go to college after high school, hopefully Hocking College. She hopes to one day start her own bakery.

Evelyn Butler really likes the hands-on lab work in the Dental program. She believes that the best thing about the school is the staff: “The staff here really tries to reach out to help you succeed.” Evelyn is hard working at school and outside of school where she is employed at both Wendy’s and Dominoes. “At Drage, I love how my whole outlook has changed. I’ve been asked to join the Sandyhook’s Promise club, I’ve received a Character Counts award, and I got the opportunity to be on a brochure for my program. The greatest accomplishment would have to be finding what I love to do and taking my skills to represent my program. I am proud that I’ve grown into a hard-working student thanks to R. G. Drage.”

Kairalee Zito has always been interested in the medical field so she is happy that the Sports Medicine program is now housed at R. G. Drage. She has enjoyed the unique atmosphere of a career-centered school, and she always looks forward to her labs: “Lab is the best part. I always take something away from each day and look forward to going back every day.” Kairalee is proud that she has found something that she is passionate about. “Drage has given me so many opportunities already, from working the medical tent at the Akron Marathon with professionals from Summa to being able to compete at the upcoming HOSA conference.” After graduation, Kairalee hopes to work as an EMT while studying to become a physician.

Interact Spreads Kindness

by Cailin C. Chumita

Around the holidays, people often forget what the cheery times are really about. The holiday season is about spreading hope and love while serving those around you. This year, Interact did just that. Lead by Mr. Rick Woods, the club of at least 50 members decided to sponsor 12 families through the "Adopt a Family" program. Members shopped for various items including clothing, toys, and essential goods. Not only did it help fellow families around the community, but it also gave them a sense of hope and safety knowing someone out there would be there to care for them.

Interact members also participated in making Christmas cards and get-well cards for two cancer patients. While this may seem like a simple act, the club made numerous cards and helped to fulfill their wishes to get cards from all over the country. Not only did it help fulfill those hopes, but it brought Interact members together for the common goal of serving people near and far.

In light of recent struggles through the community, Interact has also started making Spirit Baskets for those who need a little extra love and care. Mr. Johnson, a beloved science teacher and mentor, recently underwent a dramatic change in his life. During this time, Interact made a basket filled with Northwest gear and get-well cards to show how much we love and care for him.

Another call to action, was with the Refuge of Hope Ministries. This year Interact bought 100 pairs of socks and 50 pair of underwear for the homeless shelter. Refuge of Hope provides a clean, safe environment for men to come in and get a warm meal and a second chance.

Although the holiday season is at an end, the call for service is not! Interact plans to continue sending members to the Senior Center to help serve at the Swiss Steak Dinners, as well as hold another Senior Citizen Prom. The club is also continuing their monthly teacher appreciation for the staff members of Northwest High School. Service doesn't end with a season or the end of a school year, but continues throughout people's lives and shapes individual character. A simple act of kindness spreads happiness and provides a service. Interact encourages everyone to become part of a better future.

Attitudes of Gratitude

Northwest students throughout the district share an attitude of gratitude, giving back to the community in a variety of ways throughout the school year. Recently, their efforts ranged from food drives and blood donations to fundraisers and teddy bear drives. Interact, a service organization at the high school, was formed solely for the purpose of giving. In addition to the value of education, students in the district definitely learn the value of generosity and volunteerism as well.

Students sort groceries and presents as part of the Santa Project.

National Honor Society sponsored a food drive.

Stinson students donated over 300 stuffed animals to Akron Children's Hospital.

Social Justice/Leadership students (two photos directly above and one below) brought cards and cookies, and enjoyed games with Chapel Hill residents.

Each year all NWP students participate in jumping stations during physical education class. First grade students raised money for the American Heart Association in the annual Jump Rope for Heart/Kids Heart Challenge.

Student Council organizes two blood drives each year.

Choosing Kindness

After being diagnosed with Epilepsy two years ago, Stella knew she was more than a diagnosis. She wanted to reach out to other children who were going through the testing and anxiety she felt and give back. She organized a Teddy Bear drive during the month of November, National Epilepsy Awareness Month, at her school so that when children went in for long tests they could be comforted by a stuffed animal. Stella says, "So when I went in for testing, someone gave me a Beanie Boo, and it made me feel special. I wanted to start the drive so that other kids could feel the same way I did."

This year Stella and her fifth-grade classmates donated over 300 stuffed animals to Akron Children's Hospital. The six fifth-grade classrooms competed with one another to raise awareness for Epilepsy and bring in the most stuffed animals. Stella's own homeroom was the winning classroom contributing 167 stuffed animals to this caring cause.

On November 13, World Kindness Day, the student body was encouraged to wear purple, the color chosen to represent Epilepsy. Stella's classmates have been more than supportive over the years. Team Stella would like to report that raising awareness and talking about Epilepsy makes it easier for her and others to deal with. Stella's enthusiasm is contagious and she's willing to help no matter how big or small the task. She is thankful for all the support and love she gets from her family, friends, classmates, and teachers.
