

CLOSING THE GAP

Strategies Workshop

with Marcia Kish - Blended Learning Specialist

A free workshop for any educator who wants to close the learning gap using differentiated instruction effectively.

Closing the learning gap has never been more critical. And key to closing the gap is raising student engagement using strategies like differentiated learning.

Differentiated learning expert Marcia Kish, in partnership with eGlass, created this workshop to deliver learning strategies that take engagement to a new level in the new learning environment.

Differentiated instruction

Small group instruction, data meeting, and student empowerment.

Tech tools that work

Learn how to use eGlass to increase learning opportunities and student engagement.

Create and collaborate

Learn from other educators, create learning activities, and collaborate throughout the workshop.

Professional development certificate*

Attendees will receive a certificate for contact hour credit for professional development.

Giveaway

One workshop attendee will win an eGlass! eGlass is the world's first illuminated lightboard with a built-in camera, and one of Marcia's favorite blended learning tools.
