

San Marcos Writing Project 2022 New Teacher Writing Institute

Are you interested in learning more about teaching writing? This 5-day, virtual (via Zoom) writing institute for new K-12 teachers (0 to 5 years) will provide numerous opportunities for you to become more comfortable with engaging students with high-interest writing. Writing Institute topics will include:

- Creating the conditions for standards-based, effective writing in your classroom
- Providing meaningful feedback for student writing, all while handling the “paper load”
- Using technology to facilitate learning
- Meeting students’ social-emotional learning needs

Each day (9 a.m. - 3 p.m.) will include: demonstrations with practical resources to use immediately; time to work with experienced classroom teachers; and opportunities to collaborate with grade-level colleagues.

APPLY HERE BY May 27, 2022

Stipend: $100

Funds provided by Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief (ESSER)

Space is limited

1 semester unit of graduate credit is available from CSUSM for a discounted fee

IMPORTANT DATES
May 27, 2022	Application Deadline
June 27-July 1, 2022	5-Day Institute (9 a.m. - 3 p.m.)
October, January, March (Dates TBD)	Follow-Up 2-Hour Meetings

Contact Information: Dr. Laurie Stowell • lstowell@csusm.edu

