February

Topic: Project-Based Learning for All

Date: Saturday, February 12, 2022 via Zoom

Project-Based Learning for All

PBL can seem daunting when you have time constraints, standards, and a curriculum map. Often, the push for better test scores and “basic skills” means certain students (English Language Learners, Special Education students) fail to have access to these projects. However, PBL can work for all students and in this workshop or keynote, I lay out the blueprint for making this a reality.

Time: 10:00 am - 12:00 pm
