WORKSHOPS AND UPDATES

2017-18 NCPDF Priorities were reviewed and members were asked to provide suggestions for revisions at the October meeting.

The Women in Educational Leadership Institute was held on September 14 & 15 with over 80 women in attendance.

The America's Best Urban Schools Symposium will be held at the San Diego Marriott La Jolla on October 8-10 – visit www.ncust.com to register.

Dr. Richard Villa will present again at the QLN Center in Oceanside on October 17. This free event is very popular, so register soon at <http://sdcoe.k12oms.org/1020-153776>

Phase 1 of “Access & Equity for All Students” will be held on November 5, 6 & 7. Register at <http://sdcoe.k12oms.org/1020-150190>. This series is expected to reach capacity.

The NCPDF Executive Committee has discussed changing the name of the federation to Southern California Professional Development Federation (SCPDF). This change would be more inclusive of existing members and make it easier to seek grant funds and other potential partnership opportunities. Brenda Hall has met with the NCPDF Executive Committee and is interested in any additional feedback.

Please visit the new NCPDF website at www.ncpf.org.

Please mark your calendars with our upcoming NCPDF Steering meetings as a couple dates have changed since the original list went out this past spring.

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

Rob Nye presented the update in Stephanie's absence.
