Moving Forward Together in the Service of God - Avanzando Juntos en el Servicio de Dios

Welcome to Our Lady of Good Counsel

We, as members of Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish, strive to witness to the Good News of Jesus Christ by proclaiming our faith, educating ourselves and our children, sharing our persons, resources and gifts in the care and service of one another. We are called to foster an environment of hospitality in accordance with the Spirituality of St. Francis de Sales.

- Handicap seating is located in the 1st rows of the back section of the Church. This enables the Eucharistic Ministers to distribute Communion without participants having to leave their seats.
- Low-gluten hosts are available at all weekend Masses. Participants with this need should sit in the front right section of the Church in front of the tabernacle and request those hosts to Eucharistic Minister assigned to that station. If you need a low-gluten host during a daily Mass please let the sacristan or priest know before Mass.

SPAM - It has come to our attention that recent email communications from OLGCA to emails with Verizon, AOL, or YAHOO extensions have not been received by the intended recipients. We have investigated this issue and OLGCA has inadvertently labeled our organization (and other religious organizations) as spam. This classification is in error and has been confirmed as such by Yahoo email support teams. Without an update from them to their spam filter services, we cannot prevent Yahoo Mail from labeling OLGCA emails in error at this time. We encourage you to mark "@olgcva.org" messages as "not spam" or "ham" in your Yahoo Mail control panel. Thank you for your patience and support.

Children's Faith Formation Registration Deadline is August 15th! Please register ASAP! Do you have a child between the ages of 3 years old and 8th grade not attending a Catholic school? If so, now is the time to register for Faith Formation sessions! Faith Formation plays an essential role in assisting the children of our parish to grow in their Catholic identity, in their knowledge of the faith, and in their relationship with Christ and with one another.

With the large number of families in our Faith Formation community, please register as soon as possible since space is limited at each session. Click here to Register www.olgcva.org/news-post/~board/news/post/ccf.

We need catechists! If you'd like to volunteer to teach, be an aide, hall/room monitor, or nurse/medical technician, please contact Amy MacKinnon, amackinnon@olgcva.org, if you'd like to help our kids in CCF to go boldly into the future!

Parish Updates & Events

Congratulations again to all 8th grade, high school and college graduates.

“The Lord delights in every little step you take.”

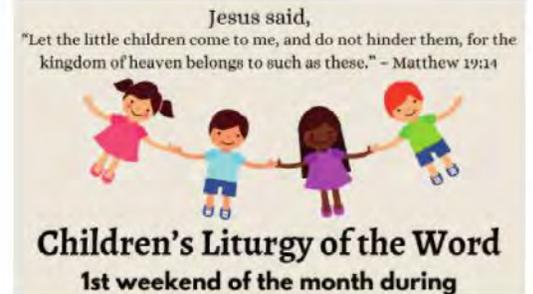

THANK YOU to everyone who helped with the Baccalaureate Mass and breakfast. The graduates and their families expressed how grateful they were for both the Mass and the breakfast. The OLGC Co-ed Softball League is back for another fun season!! We are looking forward to our seventh season after some fantastic games with a great group of men and women. We hope to maintain four teams this season so WE NEED YOU! We will hold informal practices on Friday evenings starting in June. The games will be played on Sunday afternoons beginning in July and wrapping up in August/September with a league wide tournament culminating in a celebratory league wide end-of-season party. All skill levels are welcome. New players will be added to existing teams by the league with player input with the goal of equalizing teams. There is a player fee of $25. If you order a jersey, there will be an additional fee of $15. Please complete this form to register www.olgcva.org/news-post/~board/news/post/softball. If you have any questions, please contact Jackie Madden at jfkmadden@gmail.com.

Children's Liturgy of the Word will break for the summer. We will return on Sunday, September 11th during the 10:00am Mass. If anyone would like to help with CLW this coming year please send an email to Regina Allegra at sisfroggy@verizon.net or text 703.798.6008. We hope to resume teaching every Sunday but it will depend on how many volunteers we have. No experience is needed to teach or help -- just a love of God and children. Volunteers over 18 years of age will need to be compliant with the Diocese's program for Child Protection. We can help with that. Thanks for the consideration.

It is with great joy and excitement that I announce our very own Mrs. Gemma (Pearson) Kahng has graciously accepted the Assistant Principal position for Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic School! Gemma has been a valued employee for the past 6 years. She joined us as a substitute teacher, where she taught all grade levels, and has spent the past 5 years working with our third-grade students!

Gemma holds a Bachelor of Arts in Integrative Studies, Concentration in Elementary Education, and a M.Ed, Concentration in Curriculum and Instruction from George Mason University. Gemma's outstanding teaching experience, her impressive educational background, and her love of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic School are what made her the best candidate to fill this position! Please join me in congratulating Gemma as she begins her new role on July 1st 2022.

In Christ,

In literature class, the sixth graders ended their drama unit by writing their own one-act play. Students then got together to prepare a performance of their plays, and many students opted to bring in or make costumes and props. The students then performed the plays for the class.

The Preschool enjoyed their own carnival themed Field Day!

Retreat Day 2022 was full of prayer, reflection, teamwork and fun!

OLGC School is enrolling for the 2022-2023 school year. Spaces are currently available in both our Preschool half-day and full-day programs for 3 year olds, as well as spaces in our Kindergarten classes.

OLGC School is hiring many teachers and assistants for the 2022-2023 school year. If interested, please send your resume to Mrs. Williams rwilliams@olgcv.org.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY! – Greetings today to all dads! Most of us no longer have them with us, but we feel grateful for the sacrifices they made and the strong love they had for us, even though some of them weren't able to express it as well as others. My dad has been gone for 41 years, and I'd give anything to be able to sit down with him and just talk. He was one of those quiet types who didn't say much, but when he did, it counted. He had an enormous influence in my life and even in the lives of my children – values they carry to this day. Let's remember them all today and give thanks. And, something to make you smile: A father is someone who carries pictures in his wallet where his money used to be. Happy Father's Day!!

WHAT WOULD JESUS DO IN OLD AGE? Cont'd. – “If Jesus had joined us for breakfast, he would have joined us in talking about memory lapses – Why did I walk into this room? – and about a close friend who died a couple of years ago and about a grandchild and about someone we know who's grieving over the death of a sibling. He would have taken part in our discussion of trying to figure out how to relate to our adult children who, to our great surprise, have lives that don't have us at the center. And Jesus would have joined with us in bemoaning our aches and pains and health worries and limitations. And he would have had his share. He was human, after all. Actually, if Jesus had gotten to 75, he'd be doing just about the same sort of stuff we're doing. Like the two of us, he'd be talking regularly with doctors who'd be so much younger that they'd seem like teenagers. And he'd be finding ways to fill his time while the rest of the world went about its busy business. And he'd be hanging around with and talking on the phone to and going to wakes and funerals for other old codgers.

What would Jesus do? He would have the same sort of life that we're living. He would be. Simply be. Instead of ministering to huge crowds and traipsing long miles on dusty roads, he'd be ministering to guys like us, like him. By simply being there.

He would minister by being Christlike. That is, by really listening to the other old guys who aren't looking for answers so much as they are for someone to hear them. He would be honest about what he was feeling at such an advanced age. If he was troubled in spirit, he'd be honest about it and not try to pretend that everything was hunky-dory. When you get to be our age, nothing's all that hunky-dory.

He would visit the sick if it wasn't too depressing for him, or too traumatic. He would accept the humility that age had forced on him – unless this was one of those times when he was angry about it. He would take each moment as the gift it is, and each person, too. And reflect that to everyone around him. So, that's how we've decided to act. We're going to be like Christ.

Which is to say, we're going to be ourselves, but just better. “ (Again, thanks to Patrick G. Reardon and Patrick T. Reardon.)

MATURE LIVING: CAREGIVING FROM A DISTANCE – How do families ensure quality care for their loved ones who live in another state or even another country? Thursday Night Gatherings: George Mason University's Catholic Campus Ministry is hosting weekly summer events for college students and graduating high school seniors every Thursday night in June and July at the St. Robert Bellarmine Chapel (4515 Roberts Road, Fairfax). It's a great way to meet college students from different schools who are home for break and/or meet future classmates before school starts! Like us on Facebook: College Summers with GMU CCM. Find out more at www.gmuccm.org or email vsieral@gmu.edu.
Event Dates: June 23, 30; July 7, 14, 21, 28

Attention Class of 2022: The Associates of St. John Bosco invites rising college freshmen to attend a College Night at one of the following parishes:

June 29 - St. Mark's

July 6 - St. Michael's

July 20 - Basilica of St. Mary (held at St. Mary's Lyceum)

July 27 - St. Mary's Fredericksburg (held at Holy Cross Academy)

College Nights help rising college freshmen and transfer students to network with other Catholics heading to college, and give students the tools to navigate the often difficult transition of faith life in college. Students hear from upperclassmen who give their personal testimonies about how they transitioned to college and maintained a strong faith life. There are small groups divided by students' universities and students walk away with a free bundle of Catholic books called the "Bosco Bundle" to bring to college that will help them deepen their faith while away at school. The events come with a free pizza dinner, too. Please encourage your senior to sign up! For more information, please visit www.asjb.org. Registrations limited to 50 students per night.
