Moving Forward Together in the Service of God - Avanzando Juntos en el Servicio de Dios

Welcome to Our Lady of Good Counsel

We, as members of Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish, strive to witness to the Good News of Jesus Christ by proclaiming our faith, educating ourselves and our children, sharing our persons, resources and gifts in the care and service of one another. We are called to foster an environment of hospitality in accordance with the Spirituality of St. Francis de Sales.

- Handicap seating is located in the 1st rows of the back section of the Church. This enables the Eucharistic Ministers to distribute Communion without participants having to leave their seats.
- Low-gluten hosts are available at all weekend Masses. Participants with this need should sit in the front right section of the Church in front of the tabernacle and request those hosts from the Eucharistic Minister assigned to that station. If you need a low-gluten host during a daily Mass please let the sacristan or priest know before Mass.

REGISTER BY

SUN. JUNE 26TH

See website to register!

Children's Faith Formation Registration Deadline is August 15th! Please register

ASAP! Do you have a child between the ages of 3 years old and 8th grade not attending a Catholic school? If so, now is the time to register for Faith Formation sessions! Faith Formation plays an essential role in assisting the children of our parish to grow in their Catholic identity, in their knowledge of the faith, and in their relationship with Christ and with one another.

With the large number of families in our Faith Formation community, please register as soon as possible since space is limited at each session. Click here to Register www.olgcva.org/news-post/~board/news/post/ccf.

We need catechists! If you'd like to volunteer to teach, be an aide, hall/room monitor, or nurse/medical technician, please contact Amy MacKinnon, amackinnon@olgcva.org, if you'd like to help our kids in CCF to go boldly into the future!

Children's Liturgy of the Word will break for the summer. We will return on Sunday, September 11th during the 10:00am Mass. If anyone would like to help with CLW this coming year please send an email to Regina Allegra at sisfroggy@verizon.net or text 703.798.6008. We hope to resume teaching every Sunday but it will depend on how many volunteers we have. No experience is needed to teach or help -- just a love of God and children. Volunteers over 18 years of age will need to be compliant with the Diocese's program for Child Protection. We can help with that. Thanks for the consideration.

Thank you for your amazing interest in the 21st Annual Golf Classic at Westwood Country Club. Due to the extraordinary response, we are currently on a waitlist for Golf Registrations. Please note, that there are many sponsorship opportunities available, including some with golf registrations included! Please check out the sponsorship page for more details. The Golf Classic brings our community together for a great day of sport, fellowship, and fun with the proceeds of the event directly supporting Tuition Assistance at OLGC School. For more information, visit the golf webpage or email golf@olgcva.org.

Parish Updates & Events

A person who consistently Lives Jesus in her words and actions is Teresa

Paquette. As a mother of five, she always finds ways to volunteer her time and efforts to support OLGCV! She is the heart and soul behind the School Hot Lunch Program. Even with the COVID protocols, she kept Hot Lunch Thursdays in motion through her tireless dedication to the program, our students, and our school. She is often found comforting a friend, helping out at recess, coaching track, listening to others, attending School Mass, being a greeter at the School Open House, attending Stations of the Cross, and volunteering at almost every Monthly Outreach Project. She has instilled in her family what the Catholic faith is and how to be Jesus to everyone you meet. This is shown by how her entire family comes together to manage the annual Coat Drive to help those less fortunate. Thank you Teresa! If you would like to nominate someone, please send their name and why they should be highlighted to info@olgcv.org.

Volunteer Background Checks & Training For those wanting to volunteer next year with children, you need to fill out a request form at www.olgcv.org/outreach/serve/volunteer-children. If you have any questions, please contact Christine Moan, Child Protection Liaison, cmoan@olgcv.org.

- CCF (Catholic Christian Formation)
- Children's Liturgy of the Word
- Coaching/Assistant Coaching
- OLGC School Volunteers

Visit our Safety & Security webpage - www.olgcv.org/news-post/~board/news/post/safety

With tensions high and an increase in gun violence in schools and churches, we ask you to be aware of your surroundings. If you see any concerns, please address it immediately to an OLGC Staff person or call the Police Department 703-691-2131. Security Project, as of June 13th, work has progressed to cabling for doors & cameras and installing door readers on the entire campus. Work has started on the new HVAC system and new flooring in the school.

PETS ON WHEELS – Since 1987, all-volunteer Fairfax Pets on Wheels (FPOW) has been licking loneliness by providing companionship and improved quality of life to residents of Fairfax area nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and adult day health care centers. Sponsored by the Fairfax Area Agency on Aging and approved by the American Kennel Club as an AKC-recognized therapy dog group, FPOW's trained people/pet teams share the power of the human animal bond through thousands of hours of per therapy visits every year.

Pet visitation is proven to have a calming effect. Regular visits by volunteer/pet teams help reduce anxiety, relieve depression, lower blood pressure, encourage communication, and increase socialization. What's more, touching animals helps chase away loneliness, depression, and withdrawal and encourages a meaningful connection to happier times.

Do you have a pet that makes people smile? FPOW volunteers and their pet partners make a difference every day by sharing the unconditional love of a pet to help improve someone's life. In return, human volunteers get to spend more time with their pets and make new friends. If you have a lovable dog, cat, or bunny that would enjoy putting a smile on someone's face, become a FPOW volunteer and share the power of the human-animal bond. You'll touch someone's life AND change your own! Years ago, a friend of mine took her standard poodle, "Scarlett" to visit patients weekly in a local nursing home, and she said her life was never the same after that – she felt she received so much more than she and her dog had given. To learn more about how to become a FPOW volunteer, visit <https://www.fpow.org> or call FPOW at 703-324-5424.

PET MEDICAL CARE – And, speaking of pets, here's something for those of you who have a disability and use a service animal. Or perhaps you have a therapy dog or emotional support animal. Unexpected pet medical bills can be tough to take on. If your pet needs medical care that will be difficult to afford, there are organizations that can help. Fairfax County Animal Shelter shares information on how to find financial assistance. Animals do not typically have to be service, support, or therapy animals in order to apply for financial assistance. Visit the Fairfax County Animal Shelter at <https://FairfaxCounty.gov/animalshelter> to find organizations that can assist.

JULY 4th CELEBRATION AND FIREWORKS – Yes, it's right around the corner, and you don't want to miss Vienna's Independence Day Celebration this year. It'll run from 4-10 pm on July 4th at Yeonas Park, 1319 Ross Dr., S.W. in Vienna. Food and drinks will be available for purchase at the Vienna Little League concession stand and area food trucks. You're encouraged to bring blankets or lawn chairs to enjoy the picnic-like atmosphere at the park. To top off the fun, the annual fireworks show will close the evening with a bang! Please note that no alcohol, pets or glass containers will be permitted in the event area.

UNDERSTANDING ENTRANCE FEES – Most Life Plan Communities (formerly known as Continuing Care Retirement Communities) require the payment of a one-time fee, usually called the entrance fee, before moving to the community. The entrance fee often depends on the level of care at the time of entry, type of housing chosen (with larger units requiring a larger fee) and agreement type. The entrance fee allows the Life Plan Community to offer lower monthly fees and provide for the future needs of residents. State regulations can impact the terms of the entrance fee and in some states, refunds are called rebates. Entrance fees are typically structured in one of three ways:

Declining Scale Refunds, also known as amortizing entrance fees, specify a period of time in which the entrance fee will be refundable to the resident on a declining basis. For example, if an entrance fee under this arrangement declines at the rate of one percent each month, after six months 94% of the entrance fee is refundable. Then there's the Partially Refundable Entrance Fee which guarantees a specific percentage of the refund that will be returned within a certain period of time regardless of the term of residency. For example, 50 percent of the entrance fee may be refundable upon termination of the contract or to the estate upon the resident's death.

Finally, there's the Full Refund offer which means just that, a full refund of the entrance fee. A fixed charge may be deducted before the refund is made, and the agreement generally states how long the refund is valid and under what conditions a refund is due. Entrance fees that offer full refunds are typically more expensive than those without refunds or those that are partially refundable or refundable on a declining basis.

As you can see, this is a lot of information to digest if you're looking to relocate to a retirement community. Location, type of living unit, and affordability are at the top of the list but what happens to your entrance fee is a biggie! Understanding entrance fees lays out the options that are available when paying for Life Plan Communities. (Thanks to Aging Sourcebook.)
