The Culture and Community Committee of the Lycée Français de la Nouvelle Orleans will continue to build its 4 Pillars framework through AY 2021-2022. To facilitate a collective participation in this process, the committee will invite stakeholders to co-facilitate its regular meetings.

Regularized Public Meetings

The Culture and Community committee will hold quarterly meetings (4) across the academic year, the schedule of meetings is attached to this report document. The Culture and Community committee will meet on the third Thursday of the designated month for that quarter, in-person at 6 p.m. at the Johnson campus, pending school functions, or other city or weather events that may disrupt this meeting date and location.

Meeting Committee Charge and Responsibilities

The Culture and Community Committee will structure its quarterly meetings to co-facilitate with the following stakeholder groups:

- Meeting 1: Parents (Theme: Inclusion and Belonging)
- Meeting 2: Teachers (Theme: Pedagogy Approaches)
- Meeting 3: Students (Theme: Uplifting and Empowering)
- Meeting 4: School Leadership (Theme: Diversity and Equity as School Vision)

Setting Committee Yearly Goals and Priorities

The Culture and Community committee will continue with the following yearly goals:

1. Recruit and facilitate diverse perspectives to the committee to create space for meaningful dialogue and community transformation.

2. Work to update school policies and handbooks that address diversity, equity and inclusion.
3. Provide and enhance additional channels of engagement and communication among community stakeholder groups.
4. Complete the design of the LFNO 4 Pillars framework by the end of AY 2021-2022, including milestone that align with the school's strategic planning work.
