

Downloading and Using E-books

AUSTIN PRESBYTERIAN
THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

www.austinseminary.edu/ebooks

Austin Seminary has access to e-books from multiple vendors, each with unique interfaces. These instructions describe how to download EBSCO e-books (our primary e-book provider), but a similar process will work for ProQuest e-books. E-books from other vendors, including JSTOR and ProjectMUSE are easy to access as PDFs at the chapter level and don't require additional software to download. Contact the library with questions you have about accessing a particular e-book.

REMEMBER: You can also view, read, and print or email pages of an e-book from your computer or mobile device without downloading it. This is often the best choice. See instructions below.

Download an e-book to your computer

Before you begin (You only need to do this once!):

- Download Adobe Digital Editions (<https://www.adobe.com/solutions/ebook/digital-editions/download.html>)
- Open the software on your computer and go to Help | Authorize Computer
- Check the box for "I want to authorize my computer without an ID," or enter your Adobe ID and password. (If you choose to create an Adobe ID, you can create one here). Click Authorize.

Downloading your e-book:

- Use Sophi Search to find the e-book you'd like to download. Click on the title to go to the detailed record view, then click Download. Select the duration and format (PDF or EPUB) of your download under the Full eBook tab and indicate that you have Adobe Digital Editions (or equivalent software) installed, then tap the Full Download button. Note that books that are labelled as DRM Free will allow you to download a full PDF without a time limit and without using Adobe Digital Editions.
- You can then OPEN the file in Adobe Digital Editions and read it off-line or SAVE it to read later. Depending on your browser, you may need to go to the file in your Downloads folder.
